

Assistant Farm Manager needed at a central Lexington thoroughbred farm. The position requires working with mares, foals, yearlings and stallions. The position is available immediately.

Responsibilities:

Working with Farm Manager to accomplish the daily operations for 100 horses

Assisting with veterinarians and farriers

Daily feeding of horses

Ordering feed, supplies, medications and farm maintenance items

Assisting with sales prep on horses of all ages

Helping with consignment at sales throughout the year

Assisting in foaling mares

Assisting in breeding shed operations

Transporting mares to breeding shed and clinic when necessary

Oversee the cleaning of barns

Organize work schedules to accomplish mowing, fence repair, barn cleanliness and field maintenance

Requirements:

Knowledge of mare Reproduction

Must have 2 years experience with foaling mares

Able to drive truck with gooseneck trailer

Valid US driver's license

Able to drive tractors, mowers and work with general farm equipment

Bilingual in English and Spanish language is helpful

Attention to detail and exceptional horse skills required

Working knowledge of Horse Farm Management program

Must be hard working, energetic and have a positive attitude with staff and service providers

This is a salaried position with 2 weeks paid vacation per year

Please send resume and all inquiries to dana@warhorseplace.com

