

Athens Woods Farm
Farm Manager Position

Mid-size Thoroughbred farm in Lexington, KY seeking full-time farm manager. This position is responsible for day-to-day operation of the farm, including but not limited to management of employees, hands-on care and administration of all horses and grounds maintenance.

This position offers a good opportunity for an organized, self-motivated individual to apply their horse experience within a management role. Knowledge of Horse Farm Management software is preferred, but not required.

Additional information regarding the position will be sent upon request. Interested applicants may send resumes and references to caroline@eatonsales.com.