

Herd Health Administrator:

Position available with a large standardbred farm in central Kentucky for an individual that has basic horsemanship skills. This individual is capable of or is willing to be trained in herd health/ administration including vaccination, schedules, deworming and all care of mares and foals. This position also entails all mare reproduction for the upcoming breeding season. For more information please contact Ryan at (859)230-8434 .