

The American Hanoverian Society Operations and Marketing Manager

American Hanoverian Society

One of the most dynamic warmblood societies in North America, the American Hanoverian Society encompasses two distinct breed registries, Hanoverian and Rhineland, that each have a deep history of producing top-quality horses for equestrian sport and pleasure. From the amateur or junior rider to the top professionals competing on the world stage at the Olympics, Hanoverian and Rhineland horses are the breed of choice for many. Working at the American Hanoverian Society provides a fabulous opportunity for a motivated, self-starter with a passion for sport horse breeding and competition to be an integral part of continued legacy of these exceptional horses.

Are you looking for the right job that can combine your passion for horses, give you pride in the non-profit organization you represent, and continue to foster your professional growth? The American Hanoverian Society oversees two of the most respected and accomplished warmblood breeds in North America and maintains a strong affiliation with the Hanoverian and Rhineland Verbands in Germany.

This is an opportunity to bring your results driven work ethic to assist in the continued success of the American Hanoverian Society. This position will oversee all office operations, assist in driving marketing efforts, and manage the society's small staff, budget and financial concerns. Reporting directly to the Board of Directors, your skills at communication both up and down the organization will be instrumental in growing your own professional development and continued expansion of the society. Located in a small office at the Kentucky Horse Park you will often be the first point of contact for members and volunteers reach out to.
