

Job description

Job description

Equine Hospital Therio Lab Technician

The lab technicians will assist our Theriogenologists with advanced reproduction procedures in addition to performing, assisting with everyday Lab responsibilities in our fast-paced reproduction department.

40 hours a week with some overtime required. Some weekend work required

High school diploma/GED equivalent.

Minimum of one year with equine reproduction with exposure to advanced procedures.

Minimum of two years horse handling experience required.

Must be able to lift 50-75 lbs.

Communication Competence a must! Customer Service, Attention to Detail, Microsoft Office (Excel/Word)

Procedure set for stallions and mares, Semen processing, Client communication, Manage daily schedule of appointments, Prepare shipments and semen storage, Will work with manager and team at Reproduction center.

This position is set in a team environment. It is a requirement to help others when available including the Reproduction Center

Job Type: Full-time

Ability to commute/relocate:

- Lexington, KY 40511: Reliably commute or planning to relocate before starting work (Required)

Work Location: In person